VOLO Music

The sexiest music videos today!

This is the 13th issue of VOLO. 13 has always been a lucky number for me, maybe because I am a number 4 (1+3) on the numerology chart, being born on the 4th. #13 is VOLO's first completely 'themed' issue and we decided to take on the very popular yet ever controversial subject of 'Tattoo Art'.

To be very frank tattoos have never been my thing, and except for the one tattoo on my right bicep done when I was 15, I have never personally ventured into that realm. But my interest in Tattoos goes much further than the beautiful art on skin. My interest has always been sparked by trying to imagine the state of mind and reasons behind the various tattoos that passionate people put on themselves.

VOLO #13 is not just another Tattoo magazine, nor did we make this issue to 'cash in' on the popular tattoo trends. We built this issue for the same reason we build VOLO issues every month...to showcase the most beautiful, passionate and powerful women in the whole wide world. This time we bring together some pretty incredible ladies for your viewing and knowing pleasure. All the ladies featured in VOLO #13 starting from the pretty incredible Lexy Hell (her first book as author is now available on Amazon.com - details inside) are very special people, who have lived very special lives... and lived it by their own rules. They have adorned their bodies with art that represents the various phases of their life, their dreams, their ambitions and their fears.

I hope you all will enjoy the issue.

Meet The Model

Hey Volo Fans!

My name is Lee Martin. I currently am living all over the place from Canada to the States. I have been modelling for years and it is a true passion of mine. I truly want to see where else it can take me. I am an adventurer and want to see the world. If I can do that while modelling I would be living the dream.

I do various styles of modelling, but artistic nudes are the most expressive. Being able to take the natural body and make art from it is such a strong form of expression. It is a liberating feeling, especially in the outdoors.

You only live once and I plan on taking full advantage of that... Trying new things every everyday.

*There was no doubt in her mind that taking the train was her best way out of this remote location.
Her car had broken down about a mile from the station and there had been no one in sight for over two hours since.*

*She knew that the train had not stopped at this station for years but she was confident in her ability to stop it in its tracks...
After all she was 'Dressed' just right for the task at hand.*

She grew impatient while waiting alone, growing weary of the 'Grey' and decided to explore the distant tunnel on which was etched some unique art...

She walked over to the tunnel near the station and as she touched the beautiful spray painted urban art it magically started changing to color...

At this moment she realized the deeper meaning of the events of the day; as the tattooed flowers which adorned her majestic behind also turned bright red!

*She had been given the power to add color to this grey world had been sent here as part of a greater plan!
As the color flowed from her hand to the walls.... she heard the rumble of the train from a distance.*

Having accomplished her hidden task of adding color to art, she was now ready to stop the train on its tracks to take the ride back to the city... where many a artist awaited her magic touch to add color to their paintings.

*After all, She was an angel on earth,
a perfect specimen of woman kind, from tip to the toe.
As the train approached, she took her position on the tracks and in one defiant gesture, she commanded it to

The Model Bio...

Lexy Hell was born in 1986 in Southern Styria, Austria.

In her young age she discovered her passion for art and unusual things. At 16 she began an apprenticeship as a retail clerk, where she started to earn her own money. That was the beginning of living in a new, colorful life and every month there was now at least one visit at the tattoo artist of her choice .

In the age of 19, she visited for the first time a tattoo convention. It didn't take long to catch the attention of some photographers and suddenly she was appearing in pictures everywhere. 2 months later Lexy smiled from her first magazine cover. From then on, more and more people became fans of Lexy and modeling became more and more a part of her live. That shy girl converted to a confident woman! in front of the camera.

In April 2008, she took the decision to move to Berlin. It wasn't easy for her, but she landed one job after a other, and pretty fast she became Model who won the heat and soul of Berlin! Although Lexy often had to struggle with prejudice, but her success is her right and her naturalness and professionalism has already convinced many of the skeptics.

In this short time Lexy can look back proudly on a lot of great achievement, headlining a fashion show by Jean Paul Gaultier in Paris Fashion Weekn 2011 being one of her biggest dreams come true achievements. And this was just the beginning...

Photographer Ava Pivot

Profile by Shankha Goswami (VOLO Publisher)

"Ava Pivot is one of Germany's most talented photographers, one with the ability to morph between fashion, glamour and art effortlessly.

While having a distinct stamp of her style, Ava's work is still versatile enough to be commercially relevant. Give her an assignment and she will deliver, no questions asked. Her zeal for delivering photographic excellence is second to none.

In this issue Ava achieves one of her dreams to be the cover photographer for VOLO. Being the VOLO editorial director for Europe, a cover shot was overdue from her, but of course VOLO never compromises on our principles of putting the most amazingly artful yet commercial image on the cover in each and every issue. Ava has achieved that to perfection with this set which features Lexy Hell to be featured Nude in an American Magazine for the first time.

Ava is about to deliver her first children (twins) and all our love and best wishes are with her."

VOLO: Hi Lexy, How are you doing today?

Lexy: Hey. i'm very good, summer is coming, its getting warm in berlin :)

VOLO: You have been modeling for some time now, but how does it feel to be chosen for the cover of VOLO?

Lexy: its every time really exciting for me to be on a cover, but when i heard about the invitation to be on the cover of VOLO and that a Magazine from the states want me to be on the cover, it was really an honor for me and makes me so proud. This is the perfect magazine to show my sexy side ;)

VOLO: You are one of the most inked models in the world today. Can you let us know the inspiration behind your ink?

Lexy: I was always into art, i did a lot of oil and acrylic paintings when i was younger, so this was a part for my inspirations for the motives. When i was 14 i saw a documentary about the „yakuza“ in Japan and i saw all this totally inked people and i loved how they looked like, not like everyone, so strong, so self-confident and so beautiful for me, and since this time i wanted to be like them, wanna look also so colorful.

VOLO: What is the first tattoo that you ever got? What did it represent?

Lexy: i got my first tattoo when I was 16 years old. My parents wouldn't allow it, so i had to do it on in a place where i can hide it. Also I did not have much money when I was 16 so i got a sun over my coccyx (tailbone). I like positives things on my skin, that should motivate me in bad times, and when the sun shines...everything is good. Also the location worked because I just didnt have more money to do a bigger one :D

VOLO: Do you want to share a few tips about the secret of your amazing body with our female readers?

Lexy: Thank you for the compliment, but i'm like every girl, i have my problem-zones. I love to eat and would like to exercise more... I think you have to find a good combination of „eat what you want“ and „eat healthy“ , don't be on diet, that makes you not happy and everyone can see it, because the most important thing is to have charisma, not to look perfect. Perfection is boring. so my only tip is love how you are, no matter if you are small, tall, thin, more to love, black or white, just be you and happy with yourself ;)

VOLO: So what does a regular Lexy day look like?

Lexy: Every day is different. At the moment i have a lot to do because of the release of my book... So I get up, check my mails, visit my publishing house, do some shoots or interviews, drink at least 5 big coffees by noon, i'm a coffee-junky :). Then go home when after, cook fresh meals... I love to cook and bake, then watch tv till i fall asleep:). On the weekends i meet my friends, have a party, cook together and have a good time.

VOLO: So how is Lexy in bed? Are you the dominant person or you like your man to take charge?

Lexy: I like to be both, and like to try new things ;).

VOLO: So what do you want to say to all those men in the world who will desire you after they see you in VOLO?

Lexy: Write to me, i'm single ;) ha ha ha...

VOLO: Lastly tell us about your future plans as a model. When can we expect to see you in the USA?

Lexy: I have a lot of plans for the next month. I publish my first book on May 15th, then I go on promo tour in germany, austria and switzerland. Then I have my catwalk bookings for Mercedes Benz Fashion week in june and work on my first make-up line. I love make up, and it was for so long time my dream to create my own lipsticks and eyeshadows:) Then its time to come back to the us, it has been two years, i think I will be back this year, to meet all the single men who desire me after the release of my VOLO cover ;)

Meet The Model

I began my modeling career about three years ago when an angry ex boyfriend posted my self taken nude photos on the website isanyoneup and through that Hustler Magazine helped me start my modeling career. I do all types of modeling from clothing brands to artistic and erotic nude photos. I like to be versatile with what I try to shoot. I do not have many large publications but some magazines I have been featured in are Hustler Magazine, Tabu Tattoo Magazine, Snapmatter Magazine...etc. I've also been lucky enough to work with amazing photographers throughout California and have been expanding more and more. Currently I work as a waitress in a local restaurant as well as a secretary in a medical marijuana delivery service.

My hobbies include getting tattooed, hiking (basically anything in nature) creating music as I am an aspiring rap artist. I have not been able to travel the world or anything yet and haven't even been out of California but I'm hoping to keep expanding.

Photographer: Julian Paul
Model: Bambi Lovedoll

Meet The Model

Bambi Lovedoll is a german nude modell who started her model carreer 10 years ago with Suicide Girls. She stopped modeling there and start a own pay site because she want to work more. About 1.5 years ago she stopped updating the site because she got too busy with her own tattoo and piercing shop. She started shooting for fun when she gets the time to be creative .

Her idea as model is always to go to the borders and push the needle a bit. Most shoots today are not honest or edgy enough for her tastes. First and foremost she loves to tell storys in a photo-set and that she can bring every fantasy she has in her head to reality. In her shoots she can be everything she wants to be, be it a a princess or a dominatrix.

Today she only shoots if she is very interested in the photographers work or love the story and idea.

Jacques Rattaz (VOLO Authorized Photographer) in his own words: "I'm an associated photographer, teacher and manager of ETAP Sàrl (Technical school and photography agency based in Gland, Switzerland), mainly in charge of the fashion and studio photography part of the school activities. When I was 13 years old, already 39 years ago, my father gave me his Canon F1 and at the same time, I had the opportunity to enrol into a photolab course at school. All the necessary things came together to create this passion! I mainly learnt by myself, reading monthly magazines, buying some books and practicing a lot, trying to break the rules. "

About this series:

"For a very long time I wished to found an "excuse" to shoot with Riae. This issue of VOLO Magazine was perfect to book her and to ask her to travel from Italy to Switzerland.

The day before her arrival, I remembered that there was a wall with beautiful tags in the city where I have my studio. Not some "fuck the cops" or other insanity, also not some successive and meaningless stylized letters, but real comics. Unfortunately, once I went there I saw that everything was erased. Suddenly a man, with a mask, like a tsetse fly, arrived. It was the tagger, "Sid".

After a short talk, he brought me to some spots where he is used to make some of his pieces of artwork. They were nice places quiet enough to shoot without risking offending children and parents with my models nudity... A fantastic opportunity to bring together two alternative artists (a "Suicide Girl" and a "Tagger") and two wonderful media for graffiti: skin and concrete.

Hope you all enjoy seeing as much as I did creating it."

David Perez (SID) was born on June 13, 1985. SID is half Spanish and half Swiss and lives in Switzerland.

"I started drawing since I was at school and I started graffiti in 2003 with a close friend. After some "Bubble Lettering" tags, we tried to achieve, occasionally, some frescoes. From 2010 I started to tag graffiti almost every day, mainly characters. I also do some paintings of my favourite tags. In 2013 I had my first exhibition in Gland (a city that allows me to exercise my art on the public domain) to celebrate my 10 years within this art and a second one took place in March 2014 in an art gallery of Vevey (Switzerland).

I also do some "trompe-l'oeil" for private customers (living room, children's rooms...) and restaurants, body painting and I'm a trained pastry chef... Another surface which allows me to exercise my art. There is no limit to the practice of this alternative art..."

steaming INK

Photography & Concept: Shankha
Modeling & Makeup: Melodie Gore

Model Profile

Hi Guys, my name is Melodie and I am an Inked model.

I have always thought that people sometimes overthink tattoos because what you think is super important now might not be the same in a few years...with a few acceptions of course. A lot of mine are fun things that I enjoy. Many are from video games, movies or artist I like. I have a few old school game tattoos ike mario, mega man and kirby on my arm. I love video games and nintendo is always going to be a part of my childhood and adulthood lol. Theres also a few others like the cake from portal to represent new games i enjoy as well.

I have the dark mark from harry potter on my wrist....that doesn't need much explanation ...I'm a death eater :)

My first tattoo is the girl on my right arm...I remember in Philly when I walked in to get her...the artist name is bird and I just remember telling him I want a naked chick tied up and gaged. I like bondage with rope being my favorite,so naturally thats what I wanted to get...It was the artist that took a few liberties though like making her drool haha

I am born and raised in south east GA, to represent where I'm from I have 'Dirty South' tat-tooned across my lower stomach. I everyone should have one home tattoo.

My most recent tattoo is the girl on my leg which if you look close is actually a storm trooper. its a drawing I love by hydro74 and I love Star Wars. I fell in love with it when I saw it and had to make it my first of many planned star wars tattoos.

My collarbone says succubus...which a lot of people don't know what that is. For those that don't its a female demon that seduces men in their sleep and eventually takes their soul. I decided on this around my 3rd year as an E.M.T as a warning for all the men who gave me shit at work. For years I heard I would never be able to do my job. I won't be able to lift blah blah. Then around my 3rd year I became a field training officer and wound up telling them how to do their jobs. It was a statement as in don't mess with me because i'll take your soul. I love all mythology and dark fantasy creatures so it need naturally fitting.

THE VOLO ORGASM GUIDE

Five Things That Will Turn Her On

by ELODIE BLYTHE

5 Suspense

Try being a little bit of a tease. If you go in straight for the kill, you lose the fun build up that really gets a woman going. Men can be ready to roll in a matter of seconds, but the best way to get your lady begging for more is to take your time. Touch everywhere except her naughty bits. Kiss right next to where she really wants it. Let her really crave it before you give in to her dirtiest wishes.

4 Kisses

Not only on her lips. Kiss her neck, nibble her ears, caress her breasts with your tongue. Don't forget these sensitive regions that can really drive a woman wild. It's not all about the vagina, the ass and the boobs. Sometimes the most innocent of gestures can get us in the dirtiest of moods.

3 Your Own Pleasure

Most women love to please. Knowing that they are turning on their man can be one of the biggest turn ons for women. Tell her what she's doing right and make sure she knows how much you like it. This will benefit you, too, because then she'll know to keep doing what you love.

2 Touching Her

Stimulate her senses other than sight. Men tend to be very visual and can get turned on just by seeing something (or someone) sexy in front of them. Women, on the other hand, tend to respond more to their other senses. Have your woman close her eyes and turn her awareness to how much attention you give her body. Maybe even throw in a couple sexy sounds or some tasteful dirty talk (yes, it exists) for your woman. Rawr!

1 Showing Her She Matters

Whether she's been married to you for fifteen years or you just picked her up at a bar, every woman wants to feel like she matters to you. Put her needs before yours and make sure she's having fun. Try not to take this too far: if you constantly ask whether she's enjoying herself, she'll think you're self-conscious and she won't see you as the charming, confident man she wants you to be under the sheets.

Enjoy, boys!

The VOMIX

by Jenny Daughtry

SEX WITH AN ALLIGATOR

THE POTION:

½ oz. Sweet and Sour Mix
 1 oz. Midori Melon Liqueur
 ½ oz. Chambord (Raspberry Liqueur)
 ½ oz. Jägermeister
 Ice

THE CAULDRON:

Jigger
 Shaker
 Spoon
 Martini Glass

THE CONCOTION:

In a shaker filled with ice, add Midori and the Sweet and Sour mix. Cover and shake. Then pour mixture into Martini Glass. Carefully add the Chambord (Raspberry Liqueur) this should sink to the bottom creating the lower level.

Again, carefully add the Jägermeister, forming the top layer. (There is a trick with the spoon if you turn it upside down and pour the Jägermeister slowly over it into the glass it should make it a perfect floater.)

Throw it back or sip it to enjoy the flavor explosions in your mouth.

THE SPELL:

Not to be confused with something out of an episode of “Swamp Thing” but this is a tasty layered treat. Provided you don’t slam it down, you will first be treated to the spices found in Jäger before suddenly being hit with the sour bite of lemon. Towards the end, you’ll experience the much smoother flavor of raspberry, while still maintaining the lemon aftertaste. If you can ask for it at your local bar with a straight face, more power to you. If not, practice the layering! Be careful though to many of these and you’ll feel like you just came out of an alligators death roll.

THE WITCH:

Jenny Daughtry is photographer and bartender in the San Francisco Bay Area. This feisty red head was born and raised in the sunny state of Florida but quickly made the San Francisco Bay Area her home and base of operations. She has been shooting for the past 14 years, spanning from landscape photography to boudoir photographs. Once the sun sets the playful master mixologist alter ego comes out, with 9 years of bartending experience Jenny will mix you up a drink that will have you stumbling back for another!
